

Youth claims karate title

Peter Delneky of Northfield won a gold medal and a silver medal at the World Championships of Karate that concluded Dec. 6 in Hungary.

Delneky, a fifth grader who attends Sunset Ridge School, competed in the 9-10 age group and won a gold in fighting and a silver in with a 26-11 overall record.

* * *

New Trier High School swimmers Kristin Nyweide of Wilmette and Jennifer Swarsen of Northfield have been selected as members of the United States Swimming Scholastic All-America team.

Both Nyweide and Swarsen recorded straight A averages. The team is composed of high school student-athletes who have attained a grade-point average of 3.5 or higher and have competed in an individual event at the 1992 summer senior or junior nationals, the 1991 U.S. Open, or the 1992 spring senior or junior nationals.

Points are awarded for grade point average and national championship placing. Nyweide finished with 194 points and Swarsen totaled 150.

* * *

Loyola Academy product Rob Feaster, a sophomore from Wilmette, scored 27 points and grabbed 18 rebounds as the Holy Cross basketball team opened with two straight victories for the first time since the 1989-90 season.

* * *

Freshman sweeper Tom Heisler of Winnetka sparked the Colorado College men's soccer team to a place in the Final Four of the Division III national tournament. Colorado had an 18-game unbeaten string snapped in the semifinals in a 5-0 loss to Ohio Wesleyan Nov. 22.

Colorado finished with a school record 18 victories in an 18-2-2 season. Heisler, the only freshman starter on the team, contributed two assists but most of his contributions came on defense as Colorado posted 11 shutouts.

Heisler was selected the school's top freshman and was named second team all-conference in the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate league.

NOTES

forms. He was part of a 29-member United States team that won seven golds and nine silvers and claimed the team title.

Delneky triumphed against a field of 41 competitors. He trains under Jeff Kohn of North Shore Martial Arts.

* * *

Junior Cate Rohrs of Glencoe helped the Providence College women's volleyball team to a second place finish in the Big East Tournament and the Lady Friars finished